Gregory Casey Hancock, age 84, passed away on Monday, August 25, 2025, at Azria Longview Nursing Home in Missouri Valley, Iowa.

Greg was born to Harry G. Hancock and Phylis J. (Casey) Hancock on January 30, 1941, in Fremont, Nebraska.

Greg graduated from Niobrara High School in 1958. He attended Wayne State College and earned a two-year teaching certificate. He taught at Emerson-Hubbard Junior High in Nebraska. He returned to college but was drafted into the Army before graduation. After basic training he attended OCS (Officer Candidate School). He spent a year in Vietnam as a supply officer and officer of graves registration.

Greg married Gladys Pribyl on January 15, 1977, in Wolsey, SD. To this union they had two children, JoEllen and Justin.

Greg had worked off and on for the railroad laying track and several other jobs. After working for BSA (Boy Scouts of America), he returned to the railroad. He had over 30 years of railroading, most of those years were with C&NW, but the last several were with Union Pacific.

Greg was a golfer and a bowler, an almost 50-year member of the Missouri Valley Presbyterian church, where he served both as an elder and deacon.
