Herma Lou (Koenig) Smith Lane, age 95 of Missouri Valley, Iowa passed away on October 12, 2025, at Azria Health Longview Nursing Home in Missouri Valley, Iowa. Herma was born on March 30, 1930, to John and Juanita (Grossmann) Koenig. She attended school in Missouri Valley, Iowa and graduated in 1948.

On June 13, 1948,
she was united in marriage to Gene H. Smith at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Missouri Valley, IA. They lived on a farm about one mile north of town until 1965 when they moved to town and were then referred to as,
“city farmers”.

They were blessed by the birth of three children, Dennis Lynn, Valerie Jean, and Jay Howard. Gene died on October 21, 1997, less than a year shy of their 50th wedding anniversary. This union created many joys and memories for the generations to follow.

Herma remarried

on August 2, 2003, to Ralph Lane, also of Missouri Valley, Iowa. They lived in Missouri Valley until Ralph was placed into skilled care. Ralph died on February 21, 2017.

Herma was a loving and caring wife, mother of three, grandmother of seven, great grandmother of eight, and friend of many. She was commonly known as "Granny Apples" by the great grandchildren. She loved to cook for the family, pamper all those that visited, garden to her flowers, quilting and sewing projects for the family and most of all she loved to make us feel special.

Herma worked as a bookkeeper at the JC Penny store in Missouri Valley as the kids grew up until the store closed around 1971. She then went to work for Bob Warner at the Warner, Kellogg & Day Insurance office as the bookkeeper. Gene and Herma had an opportunity to purchase the agency in 1981, Herma continued to work as the bookkeeper and agent until she retired in 1998.

Herma was preceded in death by her parents, John in 1970 and Juanita in 2000, two sisters, Olive (Corrine) Arndt in 1983 of Denver, CO., and Lorna Johnson of Council Bluffs, IA. in 2004, nephew Steve Johnson of Logan,

IA. in 2012, Gary
Lane, Jon Lane, and Diana Lane.
