

Marjorie Irene Burbridge

Marjorie Irene Burbridge age 68, of Woodbine, Iowa loving wife and mother of five children passed away on Thursday, December 17, 2020 at Immanuel Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska.

Marge was born on February 12, 1952 in Pisgah, Iowa to George and Lois (Rife) Stevens. She graduated from West Harrison High School. On September 15, 1979, she married Richard Leeroy Burbridge. They raised five sons, Bradley, Lynn, Joshua, Cody and Matthew.

Marge had a passion for nature, gardening, rock collecting, crafts, and basketball. She also loved to bird watch, so she made sure there were stocked bird feeders wherever she lived. Her greatest passion was family and she made that her career. She was always first to congratulate family on success and to pick them up if they stumbled. Most of all, she showed her love through food. She never allowed anyone to leave her house hungry.

Marge is preceded in death by her husband Richard, father George, and sister Georgia.

She is survived by her five children, Bradley, Lynn, Joshua, Cody, and Matthew, her brothers, Gary, Mike, Pat and Don, several grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Services at a later date.
